OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE.

N. Flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the Stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it, ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save!

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 1, 1865.

The Winter's Campaign.

Only last fall, just before the election, the rebellion was boasting of its strength. With all the advantages then gained by us there was nothing to indicate that the struggle would not be prolonged for years, certainly no reason to hope that early spring the theatre of war would be narrowed down to its present limits. True Sheridan had won victories over Early, but that General still made head against him in the Shenandoah Valley with a formidable force. Sherman was at Atlanta, but they claimed that he was shut up there, outmanoeuvred and outgeneraled by Hood, who had, they thought, eluded and deceived him, opening a road into Tennessee, and threatening not only to reoccupy that State, but to destroy the communications of Sherman himself. Making all due allowance for Southern braggadocio, which has been one of the most important and successful elements of their temporary success, we must in reviewing the last five months, conclude that the Southern cause was then far from proved to be hopeless, and that military miracles have been accomplished in the interim.

Then the great Atlantic seaports were theirs. Savannah, Charleston and Wilmington were flaunting the rebel flag, inviting contraband commerce and fattening upon it. Then Sherman was preparing for a march, and we heard Dixie boasting that he was driven to abandon that point, and ruin awaited him wherever he went. Then Grant and his legions, planted before Richmond and Petersburg, watched their trenches and waited, as they are waiting yet, for the time to strike, while the rebel journals claimed that his whole course, from the time he had commenced the Wilderness campaign, was a failure, and that his presence before Richmond and Petersburg was the greatest failure of all. True, the rebel cause was not flourishing, but it pretended to flourish; it boasted still, and was able to be offensive in the field. The cotton loan—thanks either to the boastings spoken of, or illuminated by the blazing wrecks of American commerce, with which Confederate pirates lighted up the seas—still was received with more or less of favor, most likely of all, in consequence of the profitable nature of the contraband trade.

But even while they boasted loudest, the cloud of war burst upon them the heaviest. It was winter, when campaigns were supposed to cease, but still the armies marched—Hood to overwhelm Thomas, and Sherman to accomplish some unseen end. How Hood fared we all know, for to-day there is no respectable or dangerous remnant left of the splendid brigades that were so confident, and the guns are ours with which they opened upon our lines. Hood, in a military sense, was swept out of existence, and the most brilliant record of the war tells of his ruin. Sherman marched through Georgia in November and December without an obstacle laid in his pathway worth a serious mention. Georgia felt the armed heel of war trampling upon her vitals, and the sad lesson her people had to learn was taught to them at home. Savannah was the prize of Sherman's aim, and when he grasped that, the way was opened for further and greater conquests to follow. In a few weeks the proud States that most despised the Union, and least expected to fear its power, were brought face to face with armies they could not oppose. Sweeping through Georgia and the Carolinas during the winter season, spring finds our armies hemming the rebel forces within a narrow bound that they daily see narrowing around them and cannot resist. As the iron walls closed upon their prisoner and crushed him, so do the armies of our nation in irresistible power close in upon the rebel capital, where they commence to realize the masterly strategy with which Grant confronts them, paralyzing their power, and holding them so long at Richmond and Petersburg, while our armies, almost unmolested, work their will through the once boasted Confederacy. If despair reigns through Dixie; if the last ditch seems to be near at hand, it is wholly owing to the genius and wisdom that planned and executed the winter campaign.

Boise Items.—We are indebted to M. B. Millard, Esq., for late copies of Boise papers, from which we learn that the tunnels run in the Banner quartz district were striking the ledges very successfully, and developing rich ore. Great expectations seem based on the Banner District.

Very rich ore had been received from Owyhee, richer if possible than any before. Several new ledges are well spoken of.

Many persons in the basin, in anticipation of the coming travel had turned out and broken the trails, as the storm early in March had made the roads generally impassable.

The World gives an interesting sketch of an old Mexican miner, who has discovered seventeen ledges in and around the Basin, and has labored to develop the quartz interest. Satisfied that his fortune was safely insured, he worked hard developing the Ethan Allen ledge, living on bread for food, and sleeping between three blankets, but his faith has been rewarded by "striking it rich," and he is now at the top of the heap in a financial sense, when not long since he had neither friends, money or credit. Good for Senor Vega!

Snow slides were frequent, and were becoming dangerous in the vicinity of Boise. Messrs. Holbrook and Hoyt were caught by a slide as they were breaking a road, and though buried in the drift, escaped with the loss of one of their horses. They were nearly frozen, however, when they reached a ranch. Mr. Hoyt had his feet and hands frozen. They were going from Boise City to Idaho City. The Boise City road was blockaded by snow and impassable for ordinary travel.

Flag Desecration.—The Masonic fraternity at Marysville lately procured a handsome flag to be hoisted on the Masonic Hall on the 22d of February, though some of the members objected that it would give Masonry an appearance of being a political concern. The flag was, however, used and hoisted on Inauguration Day, but the following night it was torn from its staff and thrown into a neighboring sink. Such is the conduct of some who oppose the Administration and sympathize with the rebellion. Words are unnecessary, as the respectable portion of the community, irrespective of party feeling, can have but one opinion of the perpetrator of such a mean and dastardly outrage.

From New Westminster.—We learn by telegraph from the North that the U. S. steamer Shubrick left New Westminster on the 18th ult. for Sitka, with Col. Bulkley and party of the Collins' Telegraph Exploring Expedition on board. He was cordially received by Gov. Seymour, who takes great interest in the work, and has promised all the aid in his power in surveying routes, opening roads, &c. The work will be commenced as soon as possible. Fraser river is reported open to Fort Hope. The submarine cable, connecting the California line, was laid across Fraser river on the 21st ult., by Government steam yacht Leviathan. The line will soon be completed.

Letter from Walla Walla.

A correspondent from Walla Walla, after giving particulars of the Union County Convention which we already have, [illegible] as follows:

Among those aspirants for the position of Delegate to Congress, on the Democratic side, are the names of Col. Tilton, of Olympia, A. L. Brown, F. P. Dugan and J. H. Lasater. The last three mentioned are citizens of Walla Walla. Mr. Brown is what is called in modern parlance, a self made man—a worthy son of Vulcan of old. He is quite a young man and is said to enjoy considerable mental culture. Of Mr. Dugan, it may be said that he is a lawyer by profession. He crossed the plains some ten years ago, since which time he has alternately [illegible] stock, etc., and practiced law. He was Speaker of the House at its last session. Mr. Lasater became here some four years ago from Oregon. He is a [illegible] [illegible]. Then there is the Hon. George E. Cole, who with the citizens of the Walla Walla Statesman, that he will be in the field.

Col. George F. Thomas, of the Boise Stage Line, has been suggested as a suitable candidate for Mayor, and Edward Ryan is named for City Marshal.

Cayuse horses were auctioned off this week at prices from $25 to $75 each.

Some two hundred miners are now encamped on streams in the vicinity of town, preparatory to their departure for Kootenai.

Three companies of the Oregon Infantry have arrived at the Fort, viz: Capts. Powell, Borland, and McCown's. Capt. McCown is to be stationed at Fort Colville.

Letters have been received here from Captain John Mullan, dated New York, stating that he would soon be upon his way back to this Territory.

We are having fine weather, and the farmers are making good use of the time by plowing and getting in their spring crops.

Mr. Taylor has retired from the proprietorship of the City Hotel, and Mr. [illegible] Joseph of the Wm. Tell Restaurant, will take charge of the same.

Good butter sells in the market at $1 per pound; eggs from 37½ to 50 cents per dozen. AJAX.

[illegible] in Mexico.—The following important decrees have been promulgated by Maximilian, and explain the difficulty existing between himself and the Church of Rome:

Imperial Decree.—Maximilian has issued the following decree concerning religious matters in Mexico:

"By Maximilian, Emperor of Mexico:

Having consulted our Council of Ministers, we hereby decree the following articles:

Article 1. The Empire protects the Catholic Apostolical Roman Church as the religion of State.

Article 2. Free and ample toleration is extended throughout the territory of the Empire to all religions which are not opposed to civilization and good habits. The establishment of a new religion will, however, require authorization by the Government.

Article 3. As circumstances may require, instructions will be issued to the police regarding the exercise of religion.

Article 4. The Council of State shall be informed of any abuses committed by the civil authorities against the exercise of other religions, and against the liberty which the laws guarantee to their ministers.

This decree shall be deposited in the archives of the Empire, and published in the official journals.

Given in the Palace of Mexico, 26th of January, 1865. MAXIMILIAN.

By order of his Imperial Majesty,

Pedro Escudero y Echanove, Minister of Justice."

From Kootenai.—Mr. Gerber, of this place, received two letters from Wild Horse Creek, one of the 14th, and the other of the 29th January. The writer says the boys are enjoying themselves there well. They have a dancing school. Many are at work in tunnels and shafts. One of these tunnels is to be run 300 feet. Several prospectors had been out up the creek and found good prospects, though they could not get to the bed rock on account of the water. They found the snow about five feet deep, and returned. They will go back about the 1st of March.

Several shafts had been sunk in the hills. One of these had been sunk to the depth of 108 feet. This is owned by Siwash McDonald. At this depth $17 was obtained in seven pans of dirt dipped up out of the water. This had given new impetus to the hill operations, and great preparations are making to penetrate the hills. The writer says that more men will be required for these claims above than have been at work in that camp. The belief is prevalent that the hill diggings will prove to be the richest in the camp.

Snow at Wild Horse was only about two feet deep on the 29th Jan., and thawing. The ground had been but little frozen.—Radiator.

How Fires are Extinguished in Cincinnati.—Every one who has ever lived in or visited New York is familiar with the noise and turbulence attending the discovery and extinguishment of a fire. Contrast the rowdy demeanor of New York firemen with that of the Cincinnati folks, who have a paid fire department. A letter from the latter city says:

A fire with us is a very quiet affair. The central bell taps the alarm. 150 disciplined men spring up at the sound. In 60 seconds 60 trained horses are attached to 12 steam engines, 25 hose carriages and 2 ladder trucks. In another minute they are in the streets, approaching the fire from all directions—horses at a keen gallop, fires blowing, steam up, every man at his post, silent and ready. And as they pass through the streets, citizens glance at them with pride and confidence. They know that the fire will be extinguished.

The Amazon.—So stupendous is the mass of water which the monarch of rivers bears to the Atlantic Ocean, that it exceeds that of eight great rivers of Asia put together, namely, the Euphrates, Indus, Ganges, Oby, Lena, Amur, Yellow River and the Yang-tse in China. So deep is it, at least in its upper part, that no bottom has been found at a depth of 721 feet. Its declivity is so perceptible and slow, that were not its volume of water so powerful, it would with difficulty flow. Scarcely is its descent in the space of 200 leagues 10½ feet—that is to say, 1 27/100 of an inch in 1,000 feet. From the Atlantic, far as Jaen de Bracamoros—latitude 4° 20', and longitude 75° 40' west of Paris, it has no cataracts or currents which impede navigation. At that place its surface is 1,240 feet above the level at Para. The affluents of the Amazon form among themselves tens of thousands of leagues of navigable rivers, an immense net, covering more than two-thirds of South America.

Steamships for California.—The Pacific Mail Steamship Company are building two new steamers for California, to be called the Colorado and Henry Chauncey. The first named is to be 3,000 tons burthen, the latter 3,000, and both are to be fitted up in first class style. They have also completed two others for California waters, named the Arizona and [illegible]. The Baltic and [illegible] are also spoken of as for the California trade. From these additions to our steam marine the Bulletin thinks the Pacific Mail Steamship Company intend to secure the China and San Francisco mail steamer service, and design to put some of the new craft on that line.

The Humboldt Express arrived here on Thursday, bringing a large supply of letters, papers and magazines. Mr. A. B. Cutler acted as messenger across the Owyhee mountains, and experienced a pretty severe trip. He was compelled to draw the express matter on a hand sleigh for about forty miles. At the point where he stopped on Jordan Creek, a drove of 100 sheep were driven off by Indians after dark. In the morning the tracks of six Indians were found around the house, and of one who had taken a peep down the chimney. They had followed Mr. Cutler for several miles. Nothing has been heard of John McComas, except that his hat and a portion of his boot have been found. It is generally believed that he has been killed and thrown into the Owyhee river.—Idaho Statesman.

The Idaho Statesman says the prompt action of Captain Smith in sending a detachment of men to check the raiding Indians on Catherine Creek has enabled the settlers to keep their stock there without difficulty. If they had been compelled to drive them out in the middle of winter the most of them would have been lost. A little timely help proved an [illegible] of incalculable advantage.

Notice.

Who are legal voters in our school district? This question will be asked on Monday through out the county. In my view it belongs primarily to the Board of Directors in every district to decide who are the legal electors in their several districts. If a question is raised, or a wrong decision made respecting any person, appeal can subsequently be made to any appellate court having jurisdiction. Appeals of this kind have been made to me, but I do not consider myself authorized to decide them.

School Supt. Multnomah Co.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

San Francisco, March 31.—[illegible] this morning, the [illegible] agreed to consolidate the indictments [illegible] and Brown against the mates, Watts and [illegible]. The Jury found them guilty of assault [illegible] and commended them to the mercy of the Court. There still remains three indictments against the first mate, four against the second [illegible], and one against the captain, which will [illegible] Tuesday.

The photographs of views of [illegible] Point which were seized by the Provost Marshal on Monday, were taken by request of Quartermaster [illegible], whose authority was an order from Quartermaster General Meigs, dated Washington, [illegible] 1864, directing views to be taken of [illegible] barracks, quarters, and other buildings [illegible]. No imputation is [illegible] upon the loyalty of the artists, Bradley & Rulofson, as the negatives have been returned to them, subject to the further orders of the Military Department. Bradley & Rulofson were in [illegible] a similar order [illegible] year, when they were engaged to photograph the Mare Island fortifications. They then sustained a loss of fifteen hundred dollars.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING.—The regular weekly meeting of the Council was held at the Council Chamber last evening. Mayor Failing and the following members were present: Messrs. Cook, Frazar, Bennett, Gilmore, and Starr. Absent—Messrs. Graden, Holman, Robertson, McCraken. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the Clerk and approved.

A petition from property holders relating to the grade of Front street, &c., was referred to the committee on streets.

The petition of P. A. Marquam for permission to fill in and grade the street in front of his property was referred to same committee.

A communication was read from Councilman Graden, informing the Council that he had changed his residence from the Third Ward, and on motion, the office of Councilman for the Third Ward, which had been filled by Mr. Graden, was declared vacant.

A memorial was read from T. C. Walters, praying for relief in the sum of $814 68, alleged to have been sustained by him on the contracts for No. 1's engine house and the building of cisterns in 1862. On motion of Councilman Starr, the memorial was referred to City Attorney, requesting him to report on the equity and legality of the claim.

The Committee on Ways and Means reported verbally on the subject of procuring a dredging machine. Several bids had been received, not including the boats: Gibbs & Co., $11,900; D. Monastes, $9,983; E. Gibson, $9,850. In the opinion of the committe, the Sheep dredger was the most advisable, and that it would not be prudent to enter into a contract with parties unless they guarantee the working of the machine and its capacity. After considerable discussion, the committee was instructed by resolution to enter into a contract as they may deem best for the interest of the city.

The report of the City Treasurer was read. The total receipts during the past year are $53,[illegible]02 81, and expenditures, $23,[illegible]92 10; amount now in Treasury, $29,410 71. The report was adopted and placed on file.

The monthly exhibit of the City Recorder was read. Total receipts from Recorder's Court for month of March, $477 17. Report adopted and placed on file.

The Auditor reported as directed by Council. He had consulted the property holders on Front street in regard to the mode of improving the same, and reported the names of all owners, except non-residents, the number of feet represented and the kind of improvement wanted by each. A large majority were in favor of macadamizing. The Auditor's report was referred to the Committee on Streets and Public Property.

Warrants were ordered to be drawn for the following claims against the city: W. P. Blake, salary as policeman for the past month, $100; E. Sanders, do., $100; H. Hoyt, $22; H. Hoyt, for board of prisoners during the past month, and fees, $334 45; J. F. McCoy, $180; Weil Bros., $40; H. R. Meeker, $150; N. Northrup, $50; R. H. Brown, $16; C. W. Burage, $240; Assistant Surveyors, $133 30.

A resolution, by Councilman Cook, instructing the Street Commissioner to place a street lamp on the corner of Pine and Front streets, was passed.

Councilman Gilmore offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the City Marshal be requested to examine the back yards of the city of Portland and report the condition of things at the next meeting of the Council.

On motion of Councilman Starr, the Auditor was directed to make out a list of all delinquent taxes, and place it in the hands of the Marshal with a warrant to enforce collection.

On motion, Council adjourned.

REV. MR. ATKINSON.—This gentleman who has been connected with the ministry in Oregon for a term of about sixteen years, will take his leave for the East, with his family, on the next steamer. He goes on a visit to his former home and friends, also to attend an ecclesiastical meeting of the Congregational Churches to be held in Boston in June next. During his absence he expects to inform himself as thoroughly as possible in regard to the most modern and improved manner of conducting public schools, and other institutions of instruction and correction, and will report the result of his observations to our State. He will also exert his influence in trying to induce a number of good teachers and ministers to immigrate to Oregon, who shall take part in the work of elevating the moral tone of this coast. It is the intention of Mr. Atkinson to visit the line of the Army and observe the working of the Christian and Sanitary Commissions, and to report on the same. In order to show their appreciation of his past services to advance the interest of Oregon, and their confidence in his present undertaking, a number of our best citizens presented Mr. A. with a purse of some six hundred and twenty-five dollars, at a social gathering at his residence on Thursday evening. The best wishes of the entire community go with Mr. A. and his family in their journey to the East. President Marsh of the Pacific University will fill the pulpit of the Congregational Church during the absence of Mr. Atkinson.

A SCUFFLE AND AN ACCIDENT.—One of the most prominent members of the Bar in this city, and a worthy Deputy of the Sheriff's office, feeling the spirit of increasing nerve with the cheerful surroundings of a beautiful day, yesterday indulged in a few "passes" for sport at the Court House door, and it proved a serious affair for the attorney. His right arm was broken above the elbow. Drs. Glisan and Chapman were called to dress the wound—and as he lay on a table in the Clerk's office, the news spread over the city in a short time, and a rush was made to learn how bad he was hurt. We presume he will be about again in a few days.

CALIFORNIA AND OREGON RAILROAD.—The Eugene Review says the Lower House of Congress has passed the bill to assist in the construction of the California and Oregon Railroad, from Marysville to Portland. We have none of the particulars, but we presume it is similar to that granted to the Pacific Railroad; alternate sections of land for five miles on each side of the route, and bonds to the amount of $16,000 per mile in the valley, and $[illegible] per miles in the mountains. It is necessary to have a railroad as the chief means of developing the wealth of the Klamath, Rogue River, Umpqua and the Willamette valleys.

A BRUTAL ASSAULT.—Last evening a man struck a Chinaman without any apparent cause, on First street, inflicting a severe wound in the face and prostrating him upon the ground. The circumstance was so aggravating that the offender should receive the full penalty of the law. Men who thus wantonly exhibit the brutal instincts of their natures are dangerous to the community and should be severely punished.

TRAVEL TO THE MINES.—We are informed by parties who arrived from the upper country last evening, that there is a large amount of travel on the route to the mines at the present time, but they state that parties will get through as well, if not better, by delaying a start for a week or so more, as there is insufficient food along the road for animals now used by travelers.

CONCERT BY MISS DEVINE.—Miss Belle Devine is now making arrangements for giving a concert in this city, that will be worthy the patronage of the public. Her entertainments were received with great favor at Victoria, and is leaving her to be entitled to the best kind of a house in Portland we speak a word in advance for her on this occasion.

GOOD-BYE.—Old March, "no 'forwarder much'" by any means—left us last night. He came in like a lion and went out like a lamb. Now April showers, then May flowers, &c. Four days of pleasant weather is much more than a sound Web Foot can bear.

PROPOSALS.—G. W. Vaughn, Esq., advertises in another column that he will receive proposals until Wednesday next for the construction of his brick and stone flouring mill in this city, all materials to be furnished on the ground.

COMMITTED.—James Curran was committed to the County Jail yesterday, in default of $[illegible] bail, to [illegible] at the next term of the Circuit Court to answer the charge of highway robbery or assault on William [illegible] Sunday night.

[illegible]—The steamer [illegible], according to information received at this office, was [illegible] Victoria on Tuesday last for this port. [illegible] she will be due to-day. Three barks and a schooner [illegible] out [illegible].

COUNTY AFFAIRS.—On Monday next the new term of County Court will meet at the Court House in this city, Judge Marquam presiding. On Wednesday the Commissioners of the same Court will hold a session.

CONSULTING AND DESIGNING ENGINEER.—Mr. [illegible] C. [illegible] offers his services in the above capacity by an advertisement in another column.

WEEKLY COMMERCIAL REVIEW.

PORTLAND, March 31, 1865.

The [illegible] of the [illegible] the opening of spring, and trade is [illegible] of an active business season [illegible] when the [illegible] under the [illegible] the market must greatly revive.

The receipts of Domestic Produce from the Willamette [illegible] steamers has greatly diminished, there being sufficient [illegible] employ but one boat in the trade below the Falls, the Rescue [illegible] to go into summer quarters soon.

The opinion expressed last week, that breadstuffs would [illegible] in Oregon, and would be likely to remain high until the coming harvest, is generally concurred [illegible], and instead of a decline we look for buyers to increase their offers, and holders to remain firm unless the [illegible] in California which has so nearly [illegible] market should prove to be speculative or unwarranted.

Washington and Yamhill counties are said to have a large amount of grain yet on hand, to arrive in wagons, but the greater part of it will be deliverable on contracts and agreements previously made.

There has been but one arrival and one departure during the week, although it is known that there are three or four vessels off the Bar. The arrival of the tug boat in June next will greatly enhance confidence in the respect, however, unless, as some fear will be the case, it should prove a monopoly, with such power under the late law of Oregon, as to drive all but a certain line of vessels from the trade. There should be no cause in the way of competition, and we hope there will be none. It remains to be seen however, how the new arrangement will work.

During the three months ending with to-day we have had twenty arrivals and twenty-two departures, with an aggregate valuation of produce exports to wards of $627,862 50, as estimated by the carriers. The imports for the same time are probably worth an aggregate of not less than $2,500,000. We have no other means of obtaining the figures than our own hurried calculations, for those vessels sailing under coast license, but the calculations will be found mainly correct.

THE WORLD RENOWNED

SINGER SEWING MACHINES!

MANUFACTORY:

182, 184, 186, 188, 192 and 194 Mott street, New York.

Motto—"The Singer Sewing Machines are the only Machines that can Sew all kinds of Cloth, and with all kinds of Thread."

Singer's Letter A Family Machine is the best and cheapest Machine in the world for Family Sewing. There is no doubt as to the value of our Machines for manufacturing purposes, but it is only of late that the public have learned that the essential elements of a Machine best adapted to the heaviest work, would also be the requirements to be embodied in a Family Machine.

We would ask for our Letter A Machine the attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want Machines for Light Manufacturing Purposes. They embody the principles of the Manufacturing Machines, making the [illegible], the interlocked stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for FAMILY SEWING and Light Manufacturing purposes as our Manufacturing Machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

FAMILY SEWING MACHINES are valuable in proportion to the number of things they can do well. [illegible] what ours can do before making a purchase.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their sizes, prices, working capacities, and the best method of purchasing, can obtain it by sending for a copy of the SINGER MANUFACTURING COMPANY'S [illegible] GAZETTE PAMPHLET, which is entirely devoted to the subject. HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY [illegible] on the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, restrains [illegible] there. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutritious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the [illegible] stomach and a torpid liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthening every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and bringing the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame of a shattered constitution, which has not yet been [illegible], is preferred to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy living agent. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A Word to the Aged!

In the decline of life, the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which sustains the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the [illegible].

For Females:

The article is [illegible] as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlivens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any [illegible].

Cure Your Cold, Save Your Lungs!

NEWELL'S

PULMONARY SYRUP

HAS

CURED THOUSANDS!

And it will Cure You!

"A Cough is generally the effect of a Cold, which has either been improperly treated or entirely neglected. When it proves obstinate there is Always reason to fear the consequences,

as this shows a weak state of the lungs, and is often the forerunner of Consumption."—[Buchanan's Domestic Medicine.

STOP THAT COUGHING!

Some of you can't, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the one destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supersede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted off the public as a certain cure; but

Pulmonary Syrup!

Is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefited by its surprising curative powers.

WHAT KILLED HIM!

Dr. Hall, in his "Journal of Health," speaking of the death of Washington Irving, asks the above question, and adds: "He might have remained with us for some years to come, had it not been for advice, kindly intended, no doubt, but given in thoughtlessness and reckless ignorance."

He Had a Cold!

Which, by some injudicious prescription, had been converted into asthma. Let me say to Dr. Hall that that "prescription" was not

NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP.

KEEP IT IN THE HOUSE, use it freely, give it to your children upon the slightest indications of a Cold, and you will think and speak of it as all do who have become acquainted with its merits.

Musical Characters in Fiction.

Since the appearance of "Charles Auchester," but more particularly during the present year, there has been a marked tendency on the part of writers of fiction to make musical characters their heroes or heroines. Miss Amelia B. Edwards is a proof of this. Her novel, "The Ladder of Life," is an entirely musical story. Indeed, few accounts of first appearances on the operatic stage have been more minute and absorbing than that of Miss Edwards' heroine, Natalie Metz; and at the present time, when every promising young lady vocalist in New York expects to go on the lyric stage, it will be read with special interest. According to the story, Miss Natalie Metz, the pupil of old Vaughn, after singing some time as a chorus-singer, makes an unexpected debut as a prima donna. The American readers who may have seen Verdi's "Ballo in Maschera" will recognize its plot as that of the "Gustavus" of Auber.

"Evening came. It wanted about twenty minutes to the hour at which the doors must be opened. Two or three musicians were in the orchestra, and some few of the singers and chorus-singers were loitering about the stage. An unsettled anxious expression pervaded every face, and people conversed in whispers. There was evidently something wrong. I could see that at a glance; so I lingered there myself for a few moments, wondering what it could be, and listening to the subdued murmur of the crowd outside the doors. Thus more came, and each following the other's example, paused and questioned, and added to number; and still no one knew exactly what it was all about.

"Then there was a sudden murmur, and then a lull, and then the manager and Gammidge came up together. All there looked troubled, and the manager was very pale.

"'Ladies and gentlemen,' he said—'and I address myself especially to the ladies—you see me in great perplexity. Mademoiselle Callot, at the eleventh hour, declines to make her appearance this evening. I have no time to send over London in search of a substitute. The folks outside are already battering the doors. Is there any lady here who would undertake the part for me to-night?'

"'I'm sure I shall be delighted!' exclaimed that shrill voice which was the exclusive property of Miss Miles.

"'You! Pshaw, woman, not you!' Here impressario, here stands the singer for whom you ask! By heaven, Natalie, you shall come forward!'

"It was Romani, flushed and trembling with excitement, who had sprung up from the orchestra and was now dragging me forward by both hands.

"The manager looked puzzled and uneasy.

"'Does the lady feel herself competent to read the part at sight?' he asked.

"'I am intimate with every note in the music,' I replied. 'It would not be necessary for me to read any portion of it.'

"'Aand I,' said Gammidge, stepping forward, 'am rejoiced to offer my testimony of the professional ability of Mademoiselle Metz. The public will lose nothing by the change.'

"A glance of satisfaction crossed the manager's anxious face; but it was evident that he still doubted.

"'Be it so, then,' he said, hurriedly. 'May I trouble you, Madam, to step into Mademoiselle Callot's dressing-room, where you will find all that you may require—and now, if you please, we have no time to spare. Here, Jackson, down with the green curtain! It's time the doors were opened.'

"And so, trembling and pale, I hasten away to the prima donna's apartment, and consign myself to the hands of a dresser, leaving Miss Miles speechless with indignation.

"The opera was 'Gustavus.' A whole act elapses before the heroine appears, and I had all this time to prepare myself. Once dressed, I began to gain confidence. The moment was come at last when I must make or mar my fortune. I resolved to make it.

"The curtain rose. I became strangely excited, but with a kind of wild delight that was half desperation. My heart beat high—my cheeks flushed—my breast seemed to dilate, and my voice to strengthen within me.

"The first act passed away with moderate applause. An apology always damps an audience, and the intimation of Mademoiselle Callot's sudden indisposition had already gone far to injure the first night of the season. As the curtain fell, Romani and Vaughan came round and waited for me at the wings.

"The second act commenced; and it was now my turn to appear as Amelia, the wife of the courtier Ankarstrom, who seeks the abode of a prophetess in order to purchase from her a philter which may quench her unhappy attachment for Gustavus.

"'Amelia, you are called,' said the call-boy, shrilly.

"I came out of my dressing-room, and, catching a glimpse of my face in a mirror as I passed, scarcely recognized the flashing eyes and triumphant lip for my own.

"'Natalie!' said Romani, laying his hand upon my arm, 'you must win this game to-night.'

"But I shook the hand off without a word, and went on.

"No sooner had I appeared in the far gloom of the seer's den than I was greeted by a round of encouraging applause. I advanced a little way and bowed, and it was repeated. I trembled, but not with fear. The foot-lights blinded me, and seemed to interpose a curtain of light between the curtain and myself. I could not see an inch beyond the stage, and it was fortunate for me that I was so dazzled, as the sight of the audience might, perhaps, have unnerved me.

"Now I assumed the trembling tone and shrinking attitude of the high-born lady, who has ventured into the fortune-teller's murky abode. I implored her aid, and my changing countenance expressed alternate terror, despair and love. Now the prophetess declares that I must seek that dreadful spot beyond the city walls where stands the ancient scaffold, and that I must there gather a certain mystic herb peculiar to the site. I dread, I waver, I consent. The crowd rushes in and I fly from the scene.

"There was another round of applause; but the chorus began instantly, and my share in that act was concluded.

"Another brief pause, and the curtain rose again. It was a solemn scene, and marvelously painted: a black desert heath near Stockholm, treeless and houseless. Two mossy columns, united at the top by an iron bar, rise darkly in the midst of the stage. These form the gibbet, and the ghastly chains yet hang from them in which criminals are suspended. I came slowly forward to seek, in that terrible solitude, the plant whose virtue was oblivion. The scene, the situation, the music, all inspired me with a strange feeling of reality; and having wrought myself to that belief, I forgot even how my own fortunes were dependant on my success, and remembered only Amelia and Gustavus.

"The house is profoundly silent, and, in the opening recitative, the first notes of my voice, imploring courage from Heaven, seem to wander tremblingly round the space and then to die away in grief and terror. I advance, recede, advance again, and stop to pluck the fatal leaves from the foot of the nearest column. The far-off clock tolls the hour of midnight. I cannot pluck the herb, for oh! I love him! Yet—great Heaven! guide and strengthen me! —I will gather it. I turn again, and see—the King.

"Then that passionate scene of love and doubt—that struggle of honor, friendship, fidelity and wildest emotion, in which the curtain falls.

"And now a long roar of approbation from the house. I am led forward. I scarcely know by whom. Bouquets fall around me. The dazzling effect of the lights has worn away, and I see a vast crowd of upturned faces, many of which are in tears.

"And then they are all waiting for me at the side, the manager, and Gammidge, and Romani, and my master and Kate Preston, and many others.

"'I congratulate you, Mademoiselle,' says the manager, shaking me heartily by the hand. 'I have never known a more successful debut.'

"'Under such bad auspices, too, by Jove!' adds the friendly chorus-master, beaming all over with delight.

"'Natalie, Natalie—my daughter!' murmurs Vaughn, passing his arm tenderly round my waist and supporting me back to the dressing-room, where I sink, faint and fluttered, into a chair, and signal dumbly for water!

"And Romani? He stalks impatiently to and fro along the corridor, approaching me from time to time with a sort of wild triumph in his eyes and lips firmly compressed together, as if he dared not trust himself to speak. My emotion, however, appears to annoy him; for, coming up to me presently, he snatches the glass from my hand and says:

"'Tush! [illegible] myself, Natalie [illegible] up and [illegible] of [illegible] energy!'

"Energy! That word [illegible] I rise at [illegible] and hasten to prepare [illegible] Then comes the call [illegible] myriads of lamps [illegible] stones [illegible] the [illegible] warning, assassination, death!' And so the opera progresses to its climax, with the same success, the same passion and power, and the same intense reality. Having abandoned myself utterly to the part, I have no need of studied gesture or stage artifice. My terror and my tears are real, and when the curtain falls for the last time, I am [illegible] trembling and fevered, and scarcely sensible of what is passing around me.

"'You must go forward, Mademoiselle,' says the manager. 'Just bow to them!'

"The applause [illegible] and mingled with it—yes, surely! [illegible] the cry for 'Amelia! Amelia!'

"And so, supported on either side, I am led forward again, and not only once, but again after that. More bouquets, more applause, more intoxicating [illegible] of triumph. A laurel wreath is thrown upon the stage and is placed by the manager upon my brow!

"Can it be real, or am I only dreaming all this time?"

Great Injustice.

THE ATTENTION OF THE BUSINESS COMMUNITY is again called to the OLD GREENBACK CASE!

HAVING BEEN COMPELLED TO ACCEPT OF LEGAL TENDER NOTES AT PAR since December 17th, 1862, for the rent of my Handsome Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large, that leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly, under protest for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,

Making less than two-fifths of the rent amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public the kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it costs to have such tenants.

LILLIE'S LOCK OPENED

In One Minute.

New York, September 2, 1864.

F. TILLMAN, Esq., 318 Battery street,
Between Commercial and Clay, San Francisco

DEAR SIR; WE NOTICE AN ADvertisement in your daily papers respecting the "security" of the "Lillie" Lock. We are aware that you well understand this lock, and, of course, will not allow yourself to be influenced by such representations. We have just sent for one of our men at the factory, and he in our presence, opened one of Lillie's best safe locks, after it had been locked and the combination turned on,

By One Blow of the Hammer

Against the Lock on the outside, and thereby breaking the cast iron bolt inside.

The whole time occupied in opening this lock was about ONE MINUTE. We send you this to tell your friends may not be deceived by false representations, etc.

Respectfully etc.,

A. E. TILTON,
WM. McFARLAND.

NO PRACTICAL

Lock Picker or Thimble Rigger

Required to OPERATE THE SAID LILLIE LOCK.

Any parties desirous of seeing the above mentioned lock, its security and easy mode of opening the same, can call at 318 Battery Street, San Francisco.

GLOUCESTER, March 26, 1864.

Messrs. TILTON & McFARLAND,
Safe Manufacturers, Boston, Mass.

Gentlemen: From representations made by Mr. Lillie, I was induced to purchase of him one of his

So Called "Fire Proof Safes."

On the 18th of February last, a fire occurred in our block which destroyed a number of buildings, and ours with the rest. We trusted our books, papers and all in this safe. After the fire the so-called "safe" was taken from the ruins, and on opening it we found that Everything had been Destroyed.

We send you the safe, with what is left of the papers, and you will see that not one of them is legible or strong enough to sustain its own weight. Having the curiosity to know how our neighbors fared in this fire, we noticed McKinnon & Hally just opening their safe (TILTON & McFARLAND'S make) and its contents were found to be

In Perfect Condition.

This led us to further investigation, and we found to our astonishment that from the large amount of combustible material in Messrs. McK. & H.'s cellar—such as lard, pork, etc., their safe was subjected to a much greater heat than that of our own, we being in the clothing business and had but little in the cellar. There was another of Lillie's safes here subjected to the same fire faring, however, no better than ours.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servants,

(Signed:) GEO. L. CHESBORO & CO.

TILTON & M'FARLAND'S

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom of an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor.—The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER,
INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.
